Mr. Frank's Creamy Cucumber Salad

Mr. Frank is my friend Jamie's dad. I've known them for as long as I can remember. After tasting his creamy cucumber salad a few years ago, I asked for the recipe. Again, this is one of those recipes that depends less on actual quantities than on personal taste.

- 3 to 4 thinly sliced cucumbers
- 1 onion, thinly sliced
- Mayo
- White vinegar

Start with a spoonful of mayo and add a little vinegar until the mayo emulsifies. Add additional mayo and/or vinegar until you have enough loose dressing for your cucumbers. Season to taste with a pinch of salt and pepper.
